All for Books—Hugs for Ghana

This year we are collecting money for Hugs for Ghana. Hugs for Ghana is a charity started in 2007 at Kamiak High school. Each year they have drives for various items to take to Ghana during Spring Break. STM alumni, McKayla Vu and Angela Ton are now part of this club, continuing the value of stewardship they learned here at STM. STM is helping them by having a gently used book drive during Catholic Schools week and all money collected for All for Books will buy new books for them to also take. Donate to Hugs for Ghana at Book Fair by rounding up your purchase, or donating cash.

E-Wallets

E-Wallets are a great way parents can let kids shop Book Fair and not worry about sending them with cash. It works like a gift card, but anyone can add funds to the card, so encourage grandparents, aunts or uncles, and anyone to help your child shoot for the stars in reading by adding money to their e-wallet too.

★ Students should spend all their e-wallet money at the Book Fair, otherwise, any leftover amount will be saved for our BOGO fair at the end of the year, or can be used online.

E-Wallets can be set-up NOW at scholastic.com/bf/stms2023.

★ Teacher Wish-Lists and E-Wallets

Our out-of-this-world teachers would love to beam up some new books for their classrooms. Look for their bins at Book Fair, find a book you and your child like, purchase the book, and take it to your child's teacher.

★ Can't make it to the fair? Miss Watters set up e-wallets for the teachers too. Click on a link to donate.

Volunteers Needed:

★ To provide all these activities for our students, we need a galaxy of volunteers to help out. Go to: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/8050f45afaf229-2023#/> Sign Up today!

★ Miss Watters is also still looking for a volunteer to coordinate Family Night. All activities will be planned, Miss Watters just needs someone to help coordinate all the volunteers and point people in the right direction for helping while she is busy at Book Fair. Please let her know ASAP if you can volunteer, or sign up on the Sign Up Genius. Parent volunteers must be cleared through the office for volunteering.

Middle school students can also earn service hours during Book Fair. Their link to volunteer is: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/8050f45afaf229-msspace#/>
